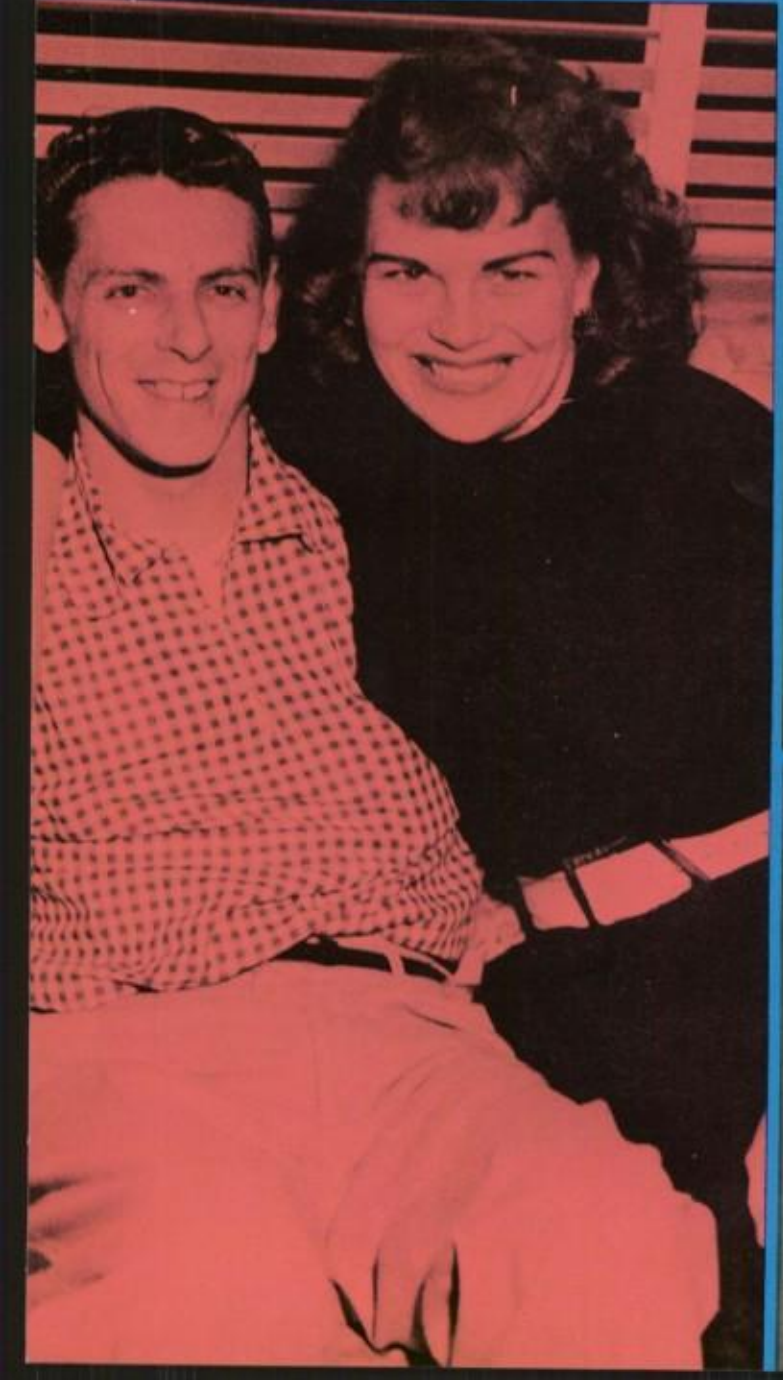
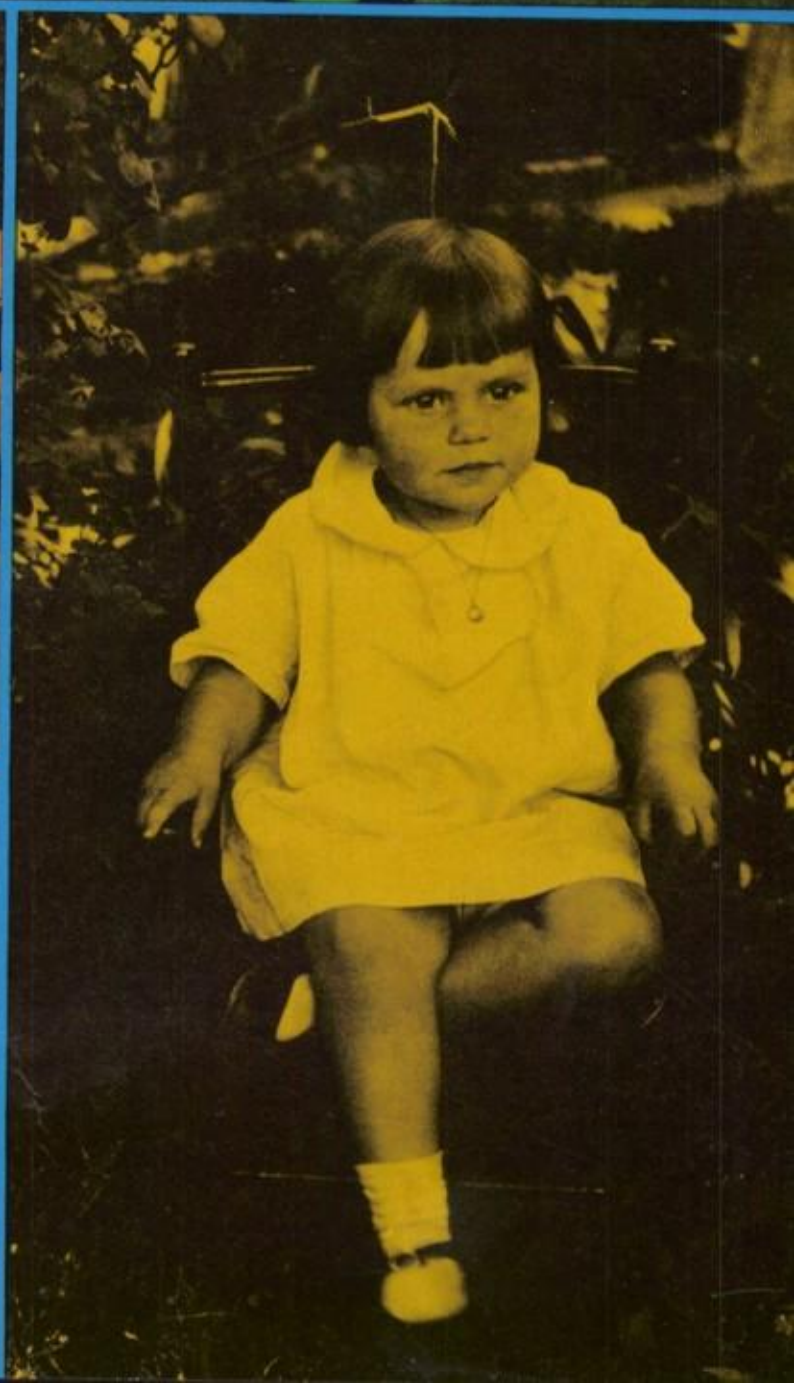
We've had the honor of having with us a very loving and dedicated lady on our staff. She has been with us for eight years now. The first seven years she worked in the attendance office where students here began to love her ways. You could come up to her and always expect to hear her say, "Hi hun, how are you?" or "What can I do for you babe?" Even at times when she was most exasperated she would greet you kindly.

This year she has been placed as the school accountant but we still manage to visit her. On one occasion we asked her how she liked her new position. Her reponse was, "The only thing I don't like is not being able to work with the kids because they make my job worthwhile. If it weren't for you all I wouldn't be here."

She's done so much for our school (Especially when she drives her Mercedes Benz) and she will never know how much she is appreciated. "We love you Shirlee Jean McBride Rountree and we are honored to dedicate this year's annual to you."





Rainbows are:

The now of my life.

I would seek the rainbow
after the storm
for the chance to let my life pass under its arch.

I would leave my past and eagerly enter my future.

I would catch tomorrow's dreams and make them the realities of today.

For is not today the moment of the meeting of my yesterdays and my tomorrows? The NOW of my life?

The rainbow of my dreams?

TO MY FRIENDS

Here I sit upon the sand
Equipped with thoughts and pen in hand
Yet not the words do I command
But they command of me.
I just sit and as they come
I write them down one by one.
I don't know where they came from Somewhere from inside me.
Maybe this rhyme I always hear
I've just forgotten thru the years.
It's really not so strange to me
It's the voice of my friends reading
My poetry.
You gave to me so many things;
The hopes and dreams of what life
Could bring.
Then for me you did something else
You've let me stand all by myself.
You gave me strength enough to know
That I could stand once you let go.
You gave me courage enough to try
To learn to walk and hope to fly.
Thank you my friends for all you've done.
Because of you I'm whole, I'm one.

GOD LIVES

Who is God some people ask?
Where should I begin his task?
What do you say to people like this
Who don't know the love they miss?

I tell them of God's love for all
No matter what age, no matter how large or small.
God's love reaches far and near
From left to right, from ear to ear.

But people say, what is God's love?
Who is this man who lives above?
What salvation does he bring?
Why his praises do we sing?

I tell them Christ died on the cross
He is yours and mine, our own boss.
God's love can be yours, too
Because God's love is for you.

So this is the answer I always give
I simply tell them God does live.
That's what I said, You heard it right
God does live . . . he's out of sight!!!!

A FEELING

I looked for that feeling I
  Put in the corner of my heart.
I looked for that feeling I said
  Would never part.
I looked for that feeling that
  Had always been around.
I looked for that feeling that was there when I was down.
I looked for that feeling
  So deep and strong.
I looked for that feeling
  For which I longed.
I looked for that feeling
  But couldn't find.
Instead I found a feeling
  Of another kind.

He glides like silk
  Through the torturing currents.
He sways to the rhythm
  Of hidden melodies.
He dips and dives
  To the dark unknown
Then hurls through the air
  With massive strength.

He breaks the barrier
  Between land and sea,
And slashed the currents
  With a mighty swish!
The king of the ocean
  Yet a lamb at the feet of Death;
He breaks through the air with a swoosh
  And dives back into the depths. A mystery!

US

What of us,
The quiet ones who dream
and sing songs?
No one listens
to us.

What of us,
The gentle ones who fight our wars with words
not fists?
No one seems to care if we win or not.

What of us,
The soft bodied
with lonely,
waiting hearts,
who will love us?
No one notices the beauty of the simple things in life or us.

NOISE

Everyone heard it,
Like a cannonball boom,
Like a clap of thunder
Which shook the room.
The train hit a building,
So it was said,
The very next day
Nineteen people were dead.
At their mass funeral
Everyone cried
For their friends and loved ones
All had died.

OL' RELIABLE

Ol' Reliable.
Ha!
Ol' Reliable isn't going to be here.
Ol' Reliable is going to have some fun.
Because Ol' Reliable wasn't there,
There is no phone,
Dishes weren't done,
The table wasn't cleaned,
Laundry wasn't done.
Ol' Reliable had fun.
Ol' Reliable had the best time of Ol' Reliable's summer.
Now Ol' Reliable is back.
The phone will come,
Dishes done,
The table cleaned,
Laundry done.
Ol' Reliable is back home.
Alone
Again.

DO YOU KNOW WHO LOVES YOU

Do you know who loves you?
You, who speaks his name in vain and you, who drinks to hide all the pain.
Do you know?
He's there but you can't see him.
He's there but you can't hear him
but he's there!
He knows when you're going to smoke that pot
And he knows when you're going to get caught
You say you don't need him
You'll live forever
but what will you say
on that judgement day.
Maybe it won't be too late before he closes those gates for you to come in.
Now do you know
who loves you?

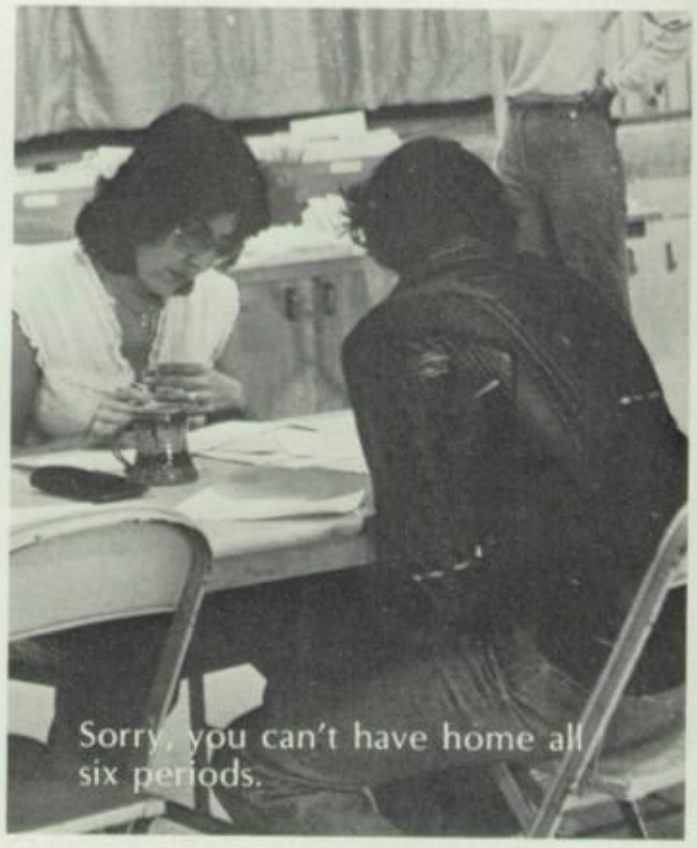
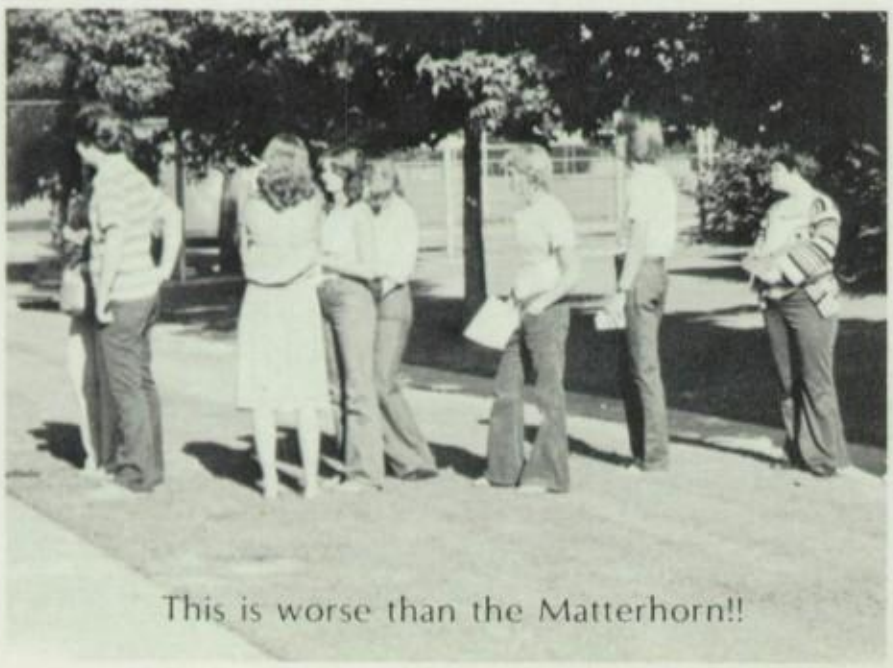
Hey, I think you've got it.



Sorry, you can't have home all six periods.

What a pain in the neck!!!

I used to worry about what people thought of me, until I found out they didn't.



This is worse than the Matterhorn!!

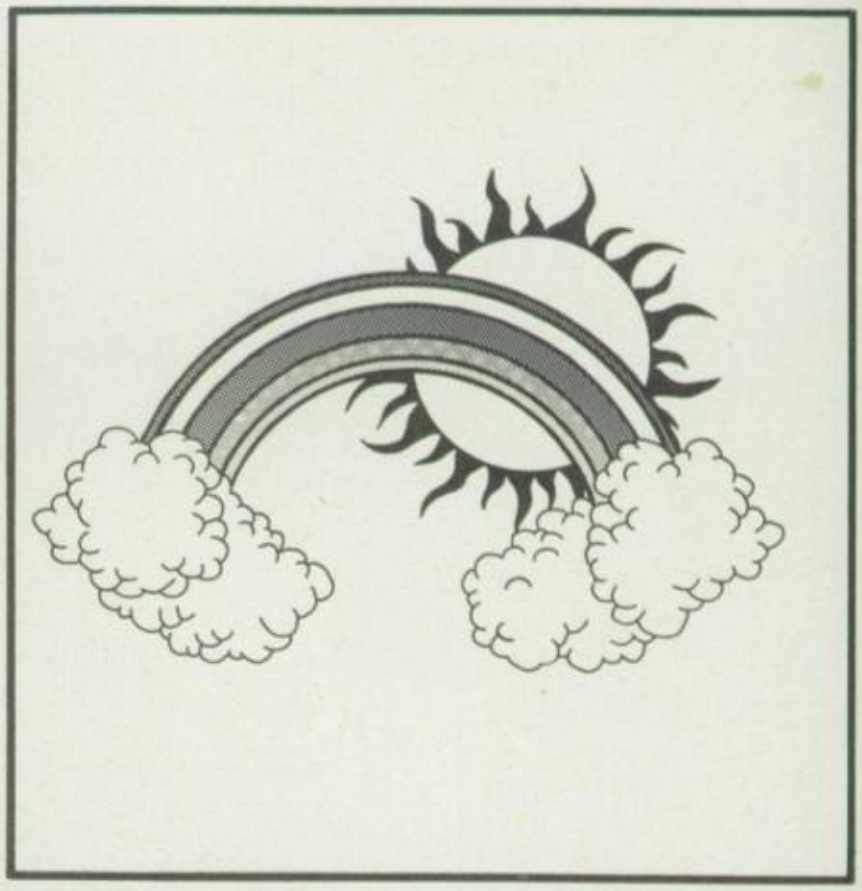
REGISTRATION

Registration showed us what the new school year would bring.

To think we waited in line for this.

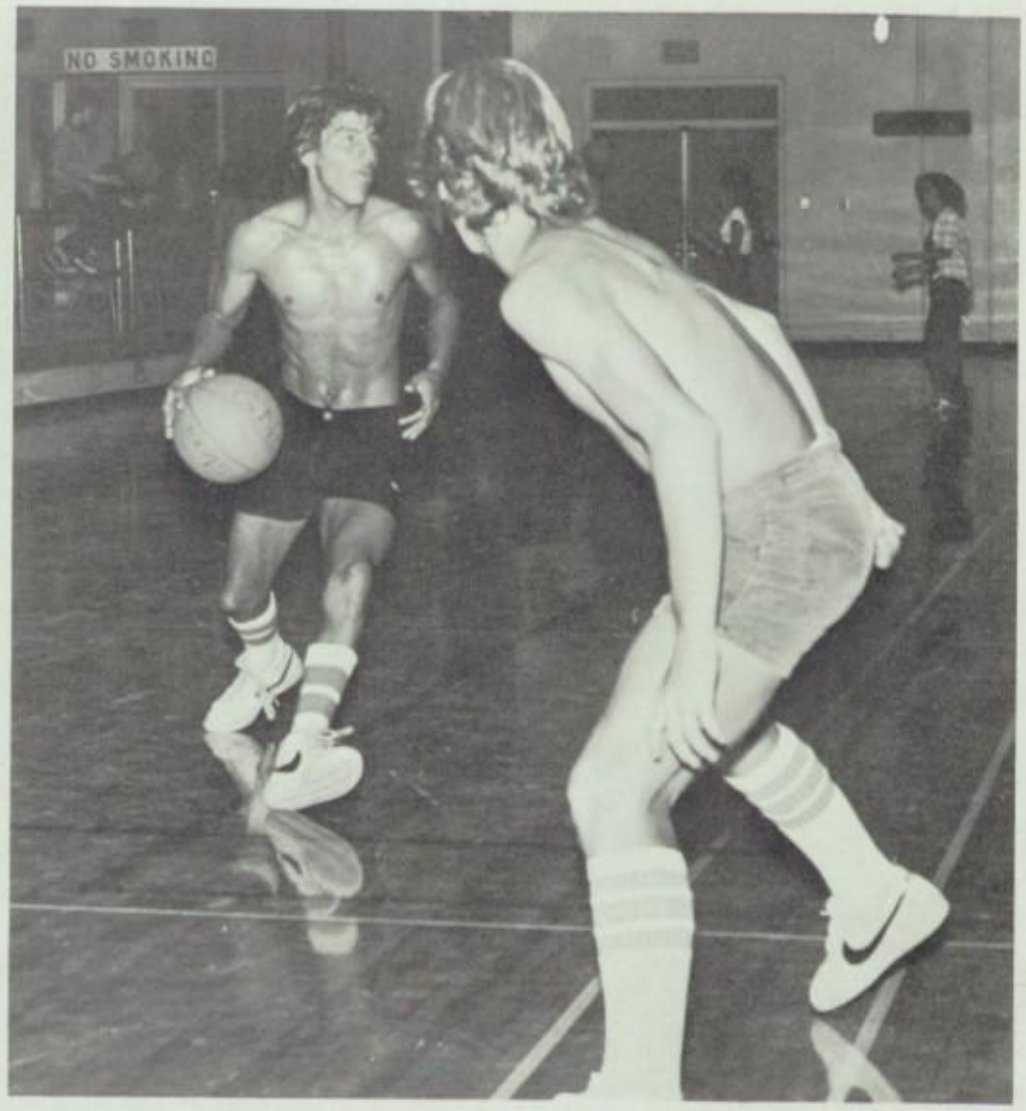


HOWDY DANCE

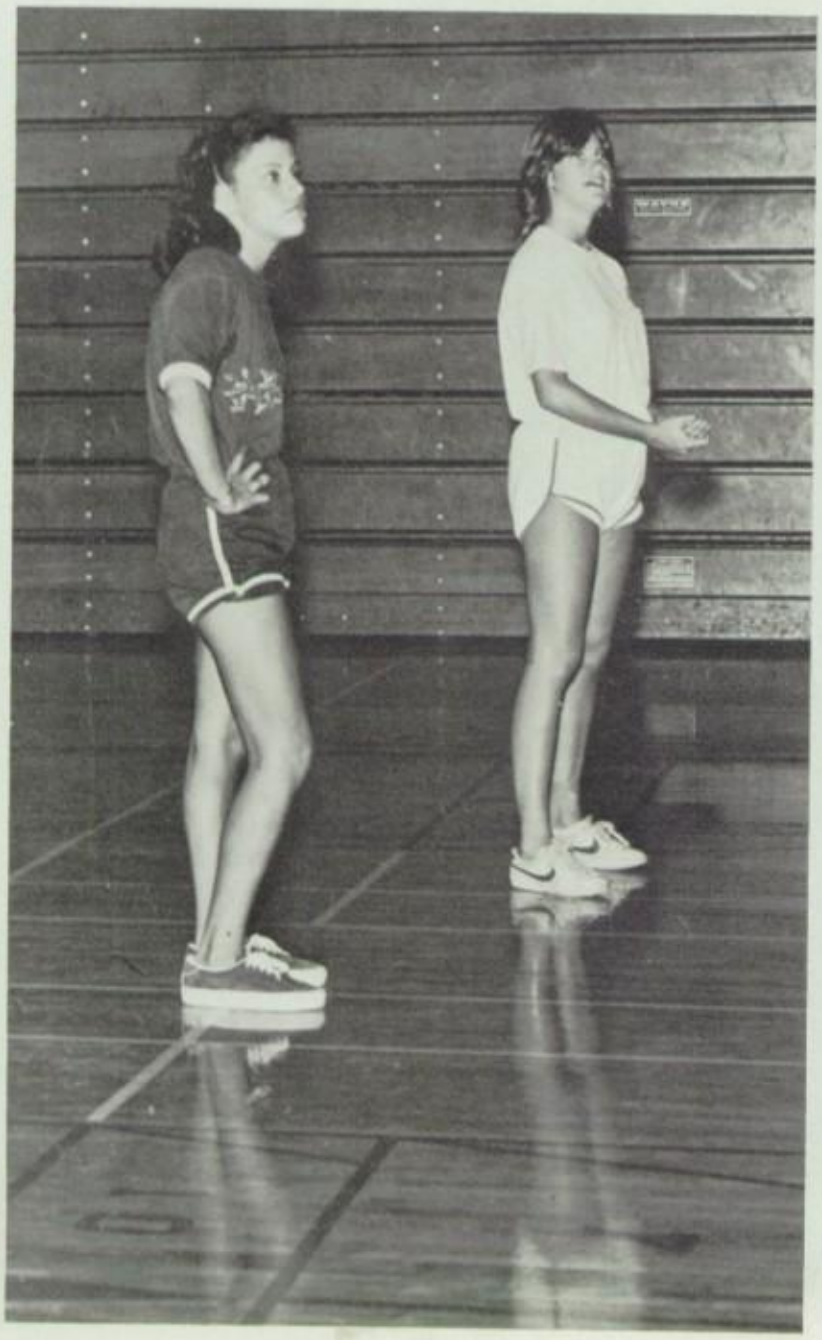
The Howdy Dance, the first dance of the school year, was a great way to welcome everyone back and a nice welcome for the new students and eighth graders. It was alot of fun dancing and talking with friends old and new. What a super way to start off the year. There were many memories to cherish. Let's hope all the dances this year will be as much fun.

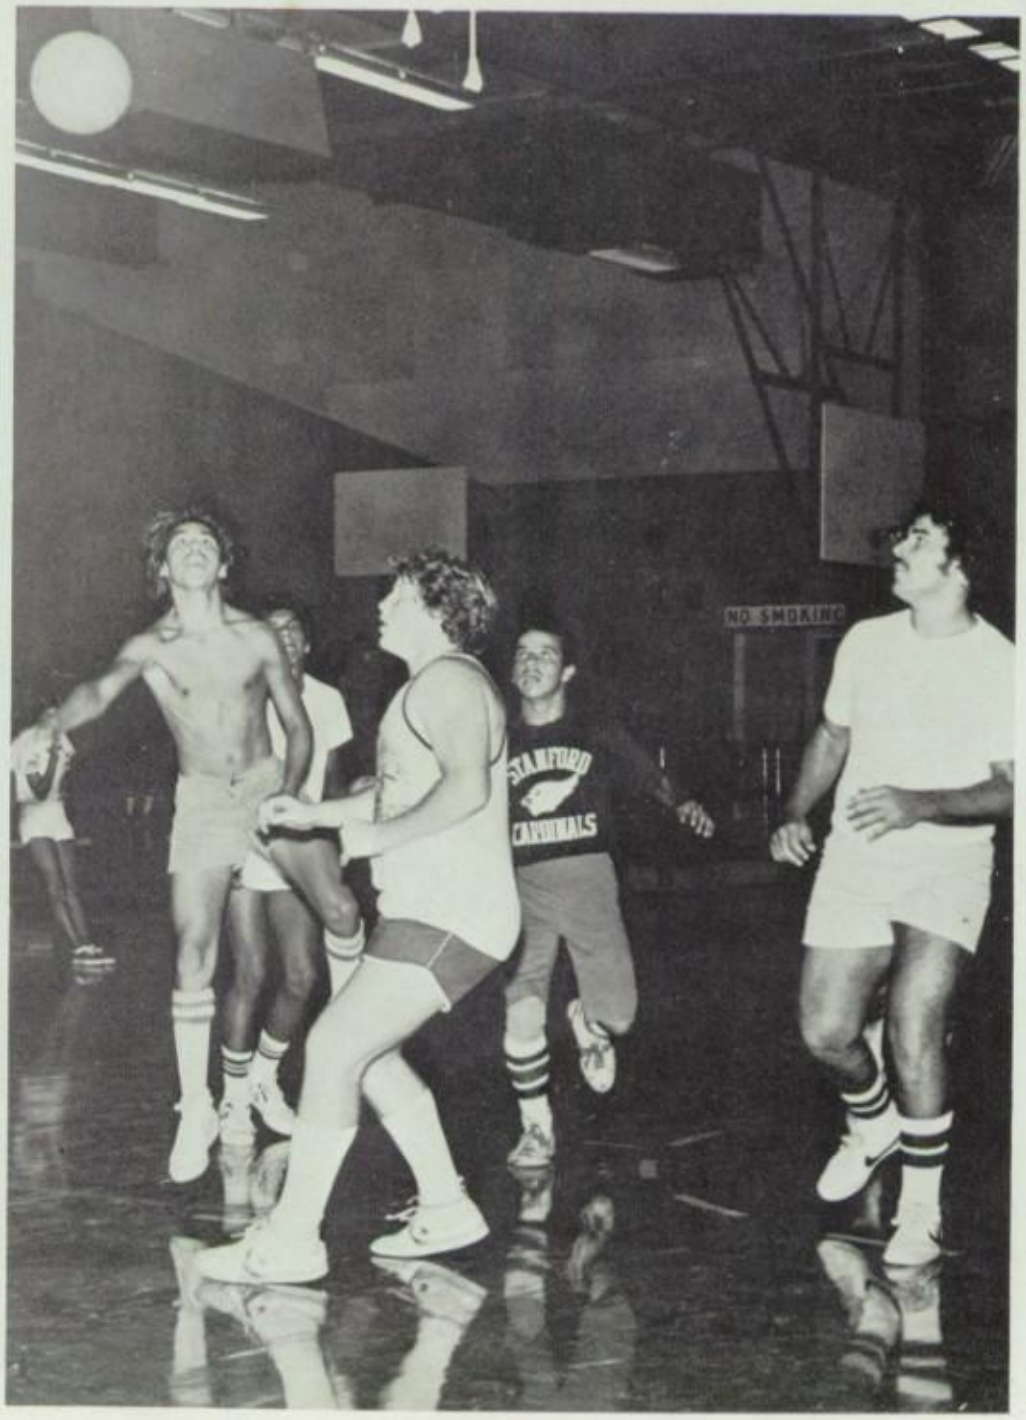
SPORTS NIGHTS

This year Sports Nights were very successful. The spirit and enthusiasm of the student body was shown by everyone participating in the games. The most popular with everyone, as seen by the participants, was volleyball and basketball. A few got some hard bumps but everyone still had a good time which is the whole idea behind having this activity throughout the year.



NO SMOKING





NO SMOKING

PEP RALLIES

Have you ever watched marshmallows pass from one mouth to the other? Have you ever reached in a bag and hoped to get something good to eat? The Pep Rallies really helped promote school spirit this year. Each class did their part in participating. We had alot of great contests and we can't forget the spirit stick!

"Twas The Night Of The Christmas Dance"

Twas the night of the Christmas Dance
and all through the gym
the band "August" played as the lights grew dim.
The crowns were placed on the princess with care, in hope that this happiness would spread everywhere.
The night wasn't over there's much more you see,
we danced, we laughed, we shouted
with glee,
but the evening soon faded
it seemed kind of sad, but no one will forget the good times we had.

For the first time since WWII our nation has been united in their feelings of outrage towards another nation that has assaulted and insulted our country by their actions. Nationalism has come to the fore.

At the time of year when we are normally thinking about Peace on Earth, Good Will Towards Men, Iran has been forced upon our consciousness each day. Many people have tried, in their own way, to contact the American hostages and assure them we have not forgotten them. In an effort to bring to the hostages a feeling that we care John Glenn Student Body sent 2 huge Christmas cards and one long roll of Christmas greetings to the 50 Americans in our embassy in Tehran, Iran.

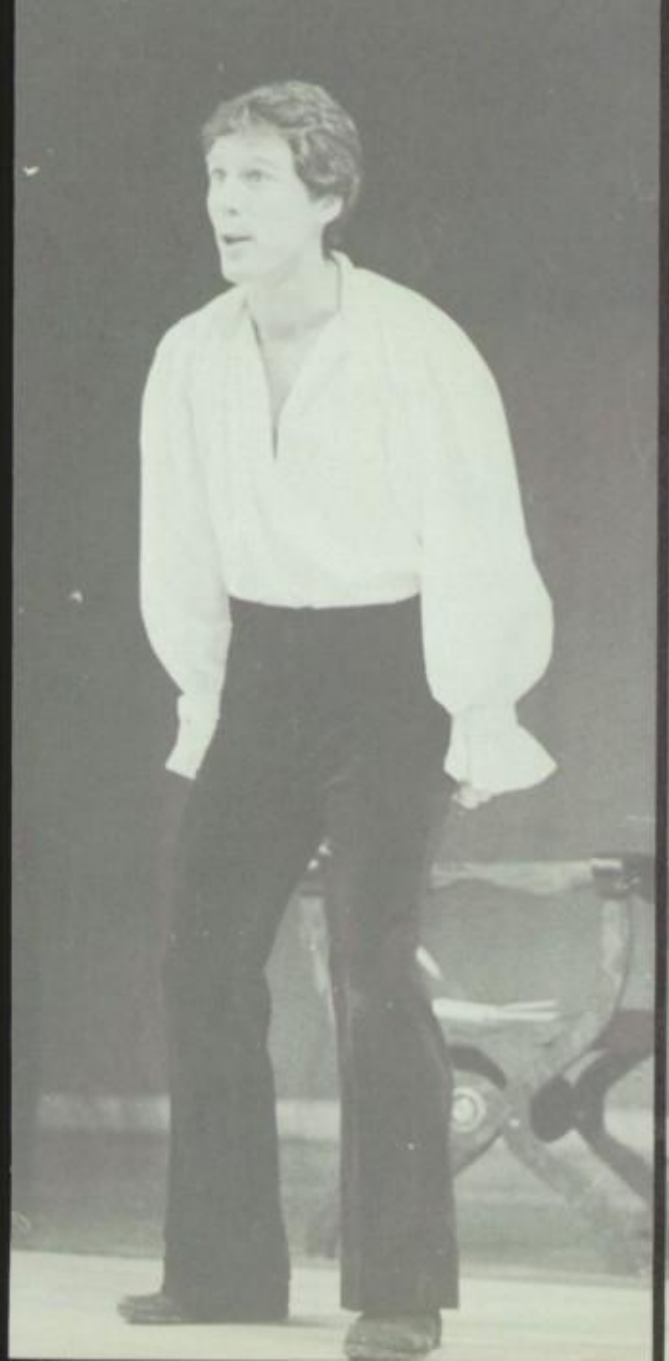
As this New Year unfolds our prayers and hopes go out to these men and women we'd all like to see back home with us soon.

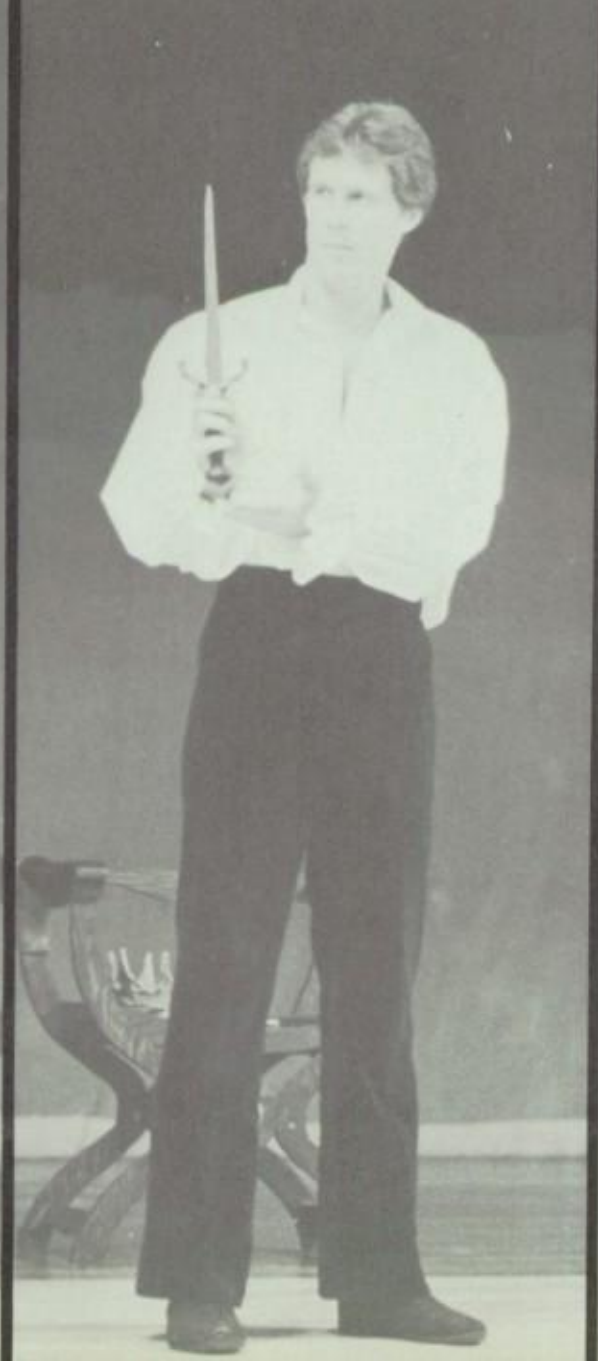
JIM RYAN

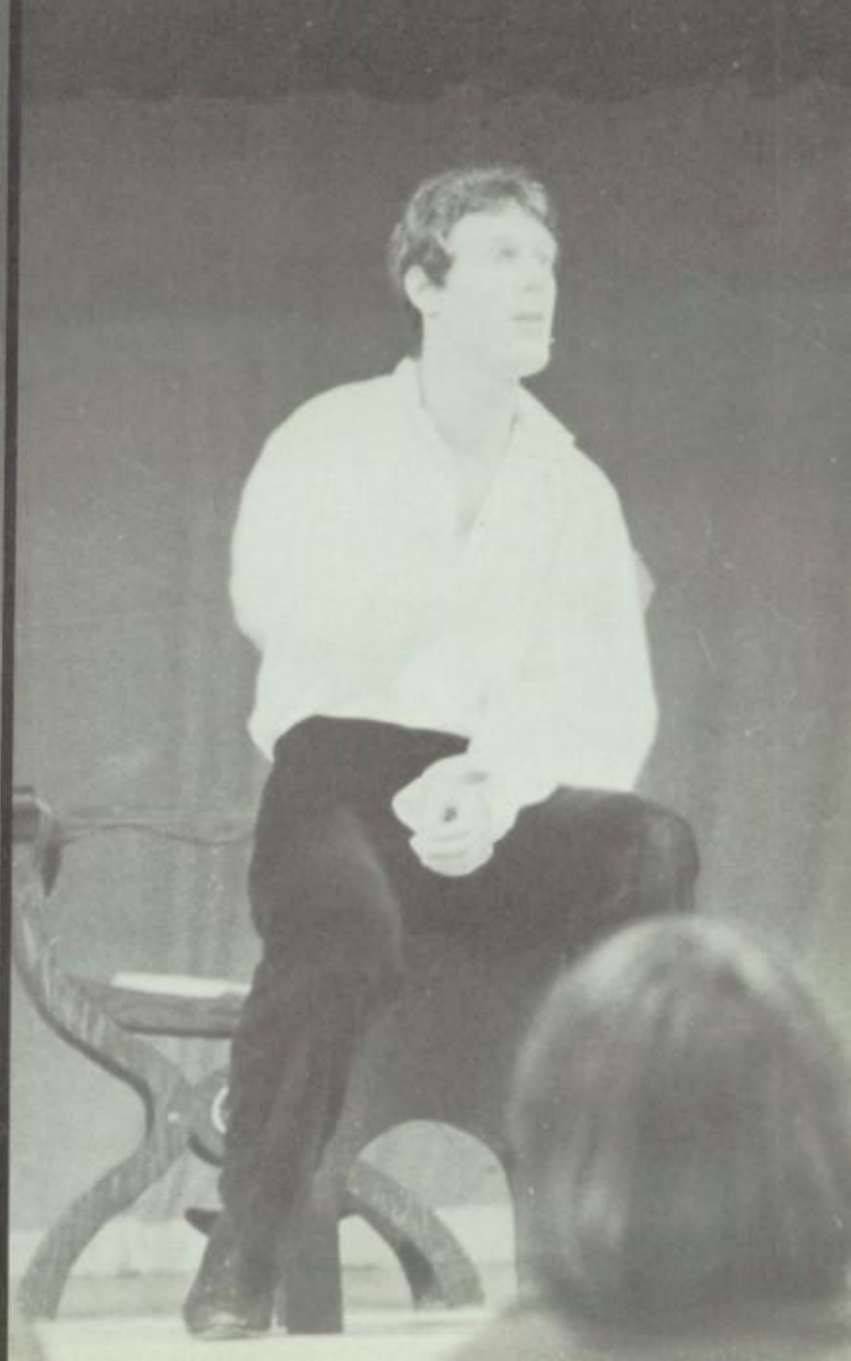
For the 4th year we have been privileged to have a one man show with Jim Ryan.

What A Piece Of Work Is A Man is a collage of character sketches and poetry designed to introduce the viewer to the universality and humanity which exists in the works of William Shakespeare. It is an attempt to counteract some of the misunderstandings and improper exposure which has resulted in Shakespeare being overly studied, intellectualized and "mummified" and simply to show him as he was, the most vibrant, alive and popular dramatist of his era.

Seeing the absorbed expressions of the audience, even the youngest 8th grader was proof enough that Mr. Ryan had the audience in the palm of his hand. Difficult as the subject matter was he had a very attentive group of students in the audience.







CHILDREN'S THEATRE

For the first time our Children's Theatre class have written their own shows. This year two shows are on the road "The Three Little Pigs" and "Cinderella." Wild costumes and wild and hep dialog are the order of the day. For instance, Cinderella's fairy godmother's 1st line is, "I'm your fairy godmother but you can call me M.G., or you can call me G.M., or you can call me mom, or you can call me mother but you don't have to call me fairy godmother." Take it from there. "The Three Little Pigs" has one of the main characters called Sister Piggy. Guess who she's modeled after. All in all originality is the name of the game and a refreshing one at that.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT ANJA NISI

What does it feel like to be an exchange student? This year John Glenn has a foreign exchange student from Hamburg, Germany.

Seventeen year old Anja Nisi came to study for one year. She is staying with Janice Callahan who also had an opportunity last year to be an exchange student in Germany.

Anja has been very active on our campus this year participating in athletics and other activities. She speaks 3 languages fluently. She and her family enjoy camping back home in Germany; we do hope her activities here make up for her missed outings with her family. We also hope that Anja has enjoyed her stay with us in Southern California. Auf Wiedersehn, Anja.

Homecoming

HOMECOMING WEEK

Homecoming Week this year was outrageous. Most students on campus participated by dressing up and joining in to help their class be the most spirited. Contests the classes competed in were the Root Beer Chug-a-Lug, the back to back race, egg tossing contest, and bobbing for apples. Seniors had the most wins for this year's activities. Dress up days are here again! Monday morning some students had not yet learned how to dress themselves. It turned out to be a DAY BACKWARDS. On Tuesday, you found yourself surrounded with LOCAL YOKEL FOLKS on campus. On Weds. classes were full of doctor's, goblins and what have you for Halloween. On Thursday you saw an enormous amount of NERDS on campus. Some with their mini-skirts or their polyester shirts, it made you want to go out and bring the GAP to campus. One day that we won't let pass by is our Spirit Day on Friday; money was raised by selling balloons and candy apples.

HOMECOMING GAME

This year's "Main Event" was our 1979-80 Homecoming Week. The most exciting event of the week was the voting of the homecoming court, with our six beautiful princesses; Julie Macias, Cindy Propernick, Lydia Romo, Michele Sharp, Linda Pierce, and Laura Wyland. It was tough on the students to pick a winner as well as on the princesses who anxiously waited to hear the results.

Friday night, on November 2, at the La Mirada Stadium, our homecoming game was being held against the Norwalk Lancers. Here, students and alumni from Glenn cheered and encouraged the players. At the same time old friends rejoiced and everyone enjoyed themselves.

During halftime, we were able to watch the homecoming court ride with their fathers around the field in elegant antique cars. Later, they were escorted to the center of the field where they were all cheered for and the queen's name was announced. A sigh, a cheer, a hug and the joy of being loved.

We had a good turn out for homecoming, although we're sorry to say that we lost the game. Maybe next year! Now, we'd like to congratulate Linda Pierce as this year's Homecoming Queen.

PEP UNITS 1980

This year's students who have brightened our football season with their entertaining rallies are the pep units. They were able to travel to San Francisco to perform at the 49er's game and had the opportunity to perform at Junior High pep rallies. Several have been asked to work professionally.

During their outstanding performances, they received four perfect scores of 100 points in competition. They are now competing for the National Championships, and we wish them all the best of luck and success.

VARSITY IN ACTION

We sit with anxiety as we watch the Varsity Football Team struggle for a touchdown. We cheer, we rise, we yell, "Go Eagles go!!" Oh, it's too late now, the games over. We almost had it. Eagle pride is within us, we don't give up hope, but we look forward to our next encounter. We say, "We'll win our next game."

Throughout the football season we always sat high on the bleachers and with our school spirit we cheered and encouraged our football players for a win. We showed pride and it gave our players hope. This year's season wasn't our best, but, we're holding on and we're looking forward to next year's season.

We'd like to thank the coaches and the team for putting all their efforts in a game. We'd also like to thank the students for showing their school spirit by going to the games and cheering for THE MIGHTY EAGLES!!!

This year's sophomore record was 2 and 8. The team proved to be a spirited one. They were given much support from Jerry Rocha who the team considered to be the most inspirational person. They were tied to be best overall but unfortunately lost the game. Coach Edelman also pepped the team up and they struggled on througout the season. We wish to congratulate the team for not giving up and for keeping their pride. We hope next year's season will bring much success to the players.

8TH GRADE FLAGFOOTBALL

LINA NOE WINS 84 OF 85 SETS

Tracy Austin, at best, should keep her tennis racquet straight, because in the next few years she just might face a serious challenge.

There's a 17-year-old La Mirada girl who has won 84 of 85 sets in the last two years of high school competition.

And Lina Noe of John Glenn High School, is working her grades to graduate early, and head off to Cerritos College to a bit more "Big time tennis."

She has racquet, and will travel.

Lina this week won the Suburban League tennis singles championship for the second year in a row.

This year, she played 42 sets of tennis without a loss (in competition).

Last year, she had a record of 42-1.

That adds up to 84-1 over a two year span.

Lina, who now lives at 8132 Ashgrove Dr. in La Mirada, started playing tennis at home, in the garage, with her cousin.

Her mother suggested she play tennis in high school.

She took mom up on the suggestion. Her mom, Letha, happens to be her coach these day at John Glenn High.

Lina started in high school playing tennis as a freshman, and she made the varsity team, at that time.

In her sophomore year, she was on a doubles team that placed third in the Norwalk-LaMirada Unified School District tournament.

She said she wants to continue in tournament tennis, "As far as I can go."

In answer to a question, she said: "I'd rather play singles, than doubles. Reason is, when you make a mistake, you know exactly who to blame (in singles)."

Like we said, Tracy Austin, stand by...there's a young girl named Lina Noe who is off to the tournaments, and she wants to go as far as she can go.

That's a long way from playing tennis in a garage.

In our day and age the symbols of peace have become more and more visible all around us. Our insecurity becomes greater each day as nations clash; we grasp at two symbols in particular as though by seeing them in front of us we will attain peace or at least peace of mind. This yearbook is no exception. In ending our decade and our book we hope we've brought to you some idea of our views on the meaning of the rainbow.

Just keep in your heart the idea that the new decade can bring peace if we work at it. And there is a way out of every dark mist. It is over the rainbow; and the white dove of peace still flies freely into this rainbow, the symbol of living in harmony on this earth.

Peace on earth is our natural state. Let our generation be the one that keeps it for not only our own benefit but for generations to come.

When all the world is a hopeless jumble and the raindrops tumble all around,
Heaven opens a magic lane
When all the clouds darken up the skyway, there's a rainbow highway to be found leading from your window pane.
To a place behind the sun, just a step beyond the rain.
